Biblical Exegesis Sabbath School

ex-e-ge-sis - critical explanation or interpretation of a text, especially of scripture.

Don't let the name detour you. This Sabbath School class is an in-depth study of the books in the Bible, right now we are in the book of Romans. In this Sabbath School class, we study the Bible contextually using historical, cultural, geographic, and linguist study tools.

This class, lead by Gene Starr, is held in-person in the library every Sabbath starting at 9:30 AM. It is a hybrid class, meaning that it is available online also. Contact Gene for a link to join online: (541) 660-4327 or beachcomberzen@gmail.com.
