RADIO BROADCASTS END A 50-YEAR WAR The Gospel just changed the face of a country and made history as 50 years of fighting ended in Mindoro, Philippines. After listening to Adventist World Radio's broadcasts and taking the Gospel to heart, rebel fighters and assassins laid down their guns and made decisions for baptism. In November, they received amnesty and embraced members of the military they'd previously hunted.

Today's loose offering goes to Adventist World Radio, a media ministry of the General Conference. For more information or to read more of this incredible story go to: awr.org.
