WELCOME

East Salem Pathfinders

East Salem and the East Salem Wildcats would like to welcome you to Pathfinders Sabbath.

The Pathfinder program is for young people grades 5 – 12. The Pathfinders learn to share and care about others as they become leaders within their communities, schools, and churches. The Wildcats are taught skills in: household arts, crafts and hobbies, health science, nature, outreach, recreation, and vocation for which Honor patches are awarded for their accomplishments.

The Pathfinders meet regularly on Wednesday nights starting at 6:30 PM at the church. Although spiritually based, one need not be a church member to be a Pathfinder.

For more information contact Pathfinder Director Sarah Corbett (503) 894-0500 or the church office (503) 363-0390.
